Keepers Fantasy Football XII Super Bowl Champion – Bossman!

Bossman finishes off Amazing Season!

Scoreboard:

SUPER BOWL XII

(4) Bossman - 141.27
vs.
(1) BIGBOY! - 139.28

3rd Place game

(6) pack slayer – 120.01
vs.
(2) Sportsfreak – 116.78

Congratulations to Bossman and Coach Steve Boss! This will not only go down as one of the better coaching jobs in the history of our league it will also go down as the best Super Bowl game in the history of the league. The 1.99 point margin of victory makes this the closest Super Bowl in league history and I think more than that what made it more exciting is that it came down to the last player (Emmanuel Sanders) on the last Monday night game of the year needing 15.35 points to seal the victory for BIGBOY! and it seemed like he was well on his way for this as midway through the third quarter he was at 13.35 points and 1.99 points away from taking the lead. For a WR this would equate to one catch for 15 yards and the Championship was theirs however Sanders was unable to get another catch after that even when it went to OT! Bossman walks away with their 2nd Super Bowl victory and joins HHH, Showboat and Pack Attack as teams to win more than one championship! For BIGBOY! this is about as tough of a loss you could imagine but there was a lot of positives this season and they will need to build off of those and come back stronger next season! Now that they have tasted the Super Bowl I expect them to come back with a vengeance next season. For now though this season is about Bossman! Congratulations once again Bossman and be looking for a place in your home to showcase that trophy!

Pack slayer takes down Sportsfreak for Third Place!

I know that this is just the 3rd place game but it is worth taking a couple of minutes to mention since both of these two teams had solid seasons despite not finishing with a championship like they both were hoping. Pack slayer has got to be happy with a 3rd place finish since just a couple of weeks ago they were fighting for a playoff spot! And while Sportsfreak right now may consider a 4th place finish as a failure since I know they wanted that Championship I think when they look back they will consider this a fun season and one that should be looked at as a solid season. At some point though a championship is going to be needed for them to look back at any season as a success.
